NEW HOPE COMMUNITY FOOD PANTRY RECOGNIZED WITH “AT&T INVESTING IN ILLINOIS AWARD”

CHICAGO, IL JANUARY 5, 2015 — AT&T Illinois today New Hope Community Food Pantry is the winner of an “AT&T Investing in Illinois Award.”

New Hope Community Food Pantry receives public recognition and a contribution of $1,500 from AT&T to be used to support New Hope’s volunteer-driven, community-supported nonprofit food pantry program that provides meals and emergency food supplies for individuals facing hunger issues.

“In a digital world and an Internet economy, AT&T is helping consumers and businesses move forward by delivering wired and wireless broadband solutions. We’re also helping the communities we serve move forward through corporate contributions to Illinois non-profit groups and programs that are making a difference locally,” said Eileen Mitchell, Vice President External & Legislative Affairs, AT&T Illinois.

Alderman Mary O’Connor, State Senator John Mulroe and State Representative Michael McAuliffe nominated the organization for the recognition from AT&T Illinois.

The AT&T Investing in Illinois Awards provide resources and recognition to organizations and programs that are improving lives in their communities and the state by advancing education, economic growth, new technologies and other essential community services.
